

> On Sep 14, 2012, at 11:57 AM, "WOODY-GTINNEWS"
<woody@gtinewsphoto.com<mailto:woody@gtinewsphoto.com>> wrote:
>
> Mr. Manchester,
> It has been twelve days since our last communication. I see from news coverage that you are also purchasing the No. Co. Times. So, as usual, I am looking for hard evidence of change in the near future before I continue publishing on the NCT, and the UT.
>
> The NCT is the news group that had 11 reporters and editors actively participating in a criminal conspiracy with the Oceanside first responder unions election fraud, evidence tampering, and its cover up in exchange for advertising money. I gave that documentation to every major news group in San Diego including the Union Tribune. Things got worse as I watched news groups, including the UT, take the documentation I gave them, and selectively report on Republicans involved in the public corruption, and avoid reporting on the democrats and unions.
>
> So I took the documentation to the national groups like the Associated Press, located in the UT building, and watched as the AP and its reporters avoided reporting on the NCT and other news groups to protect the sale of their news stories to those news groups.
>
> So my trust of the news organizations is not good. So I am really hoping to see major change in the UT and the NCT under your ownership. I was in the loop on one of Mr. Osborne's e-mail, and offered to sit in front of him and prove everything I have said with public record documents, just as I made that offer to you. There has been no response as usual. It seems I make reporters uncomfortable when I talk about the criminal conduct of reporters and public unions.
>
> So I would like to know if you have had time to review various articles on this extensive public corruption, if I can answer any questions, and what the UT and NCT are going to do next.
>
> Woodrow L. Higdon
> Investigative Photo Journalism
>
> GTI NEWS PHOTO
> www.gtinewsphoto.com<http://www.gtinewsphoto.com>
> woody@gtinewsphoto.com<mailto:woody@gtinewsphoto.com>
> 760-754-8423
>
>